LOTHMAN'S LATIN LESSONS

Based upon the use of grammar from the outset in order to secure a broadened understanding of Latin in succeeding years—this book insures at each step a definite gain in the comprehension of Latin constructions.

A brief outline of the essentials of English grammar, Latin-to-English and English-to-Latin exercises, a vocabulary taken from Caesar's Commentaries, readings from Caesar and Nepos, and frequent reviews make the book modern and helpful.
